

Week 2 Announcements:

- The plagiarism quiz is now available on WebAccess. You'll find it listed as the sole available quiz under "Assess" on the front page of the course portal there. Please be sure to take and pass with 100% that 11-question quiz by this Thursday before class in order to receive credit for it.
- One of my previous English 110 students has notified me that she wishes to sell 2 of her books from the course, Yonnondio and Cathedral. She's asking $10 for each title. If anyone is interested in buying one or both of those titles from her please let me know in class on Thursday.
- For interested students please see this Transfer Center activity notice.
