

Exercise D

Each sentence contains a blank. Choose the form of the verb (A or B) that correctly completes the sentence.

1. Someone among my acquaintances ___ been sending me flowers.
A) has
B) have

2. Neither Sergio nor Juan ___ chosen for the award.
A) was
B) were

3. How ___ the colored lights on the stage look?
A) does
B) do

4. Spaghetti and meat balls ___ a favorite meal for most children.
A) is
B) are

5. Both my sister and brother ___ football.
A) loves
B) love

6. One of his favorite songs ___ “Unforgettable” by Nat King Cole.
A) is
B) are

7. Either of the applicants ___ qualified for the job.
A) was
B) were

8. A passport or two other forms of identification ___ required.
A) is
B) are

9. That flock of birds ___ migrating south.
A) is
B) are
10. Neither the team nor the coach ___ planning a late night celebration.
A) is
B) are

Exercise E

Rewrite the paragraph, making subjects and verbs agree.

Montreal, the City of Festivals, (is, are) alive with street parties and celebrations. The people of Montreal (ranks, rank) high among the world's supporters of urban festivals. Festivals such as the Annual Jazz Fest and the World Film Festival (accounts, account) for just a few. A crowd (gathers, gather) at the appearance of a street band. A pair of comfortable shoes (is, are) essential for anyone touring historic Old Montreal. Everybody (finds, find) something to enjoy in Montreal's dining establishments. These restaurants, cafes, and bistros (offers, offer) the cuisine of several nationalities. At the Biodome de Montreal, visitors (explores, explore) re-creations of natural ecosystems. The Botanical Garden, with over thirty gardens, (is, are) a popular touring site. Montreal's chic boulevards and 18-mile Underground City (delights, delight) shoppers.