

Quote Integration Worksheet

Exercise: First, try to explain the integration mistake in each sentence below. Then, based on what you've already learned about quotation integration, correct each passage so that the quote is smoothly and clearly integrated. Make the best corrections possible with the information you have available.

1. "You must stand tall and listen to your mother standing next to you. That is the only way to stand tall and straight."

2. An-Mei says that "you must stand tall and listen to your mother standing next to you. That is the only way to stand tall and straight."

3. An-Mei tries to explain principals of respect and self confidence to her daughter, "You must stand tall and listen to your mother standing next to you. That is the only way to stand tall and straight."

4. And then An-Mei explains: "You must stand tall and listen to your mother standing next to you. That is the only way to stand tall and straight."
